NUMB. 3074

MONDAY, JANUARY 9, 1744.

Since our last arrived the Mails from France and Flanders.

Constantinople, November 20.

The following is a Translation of the Cajme, lately arrived at the Sublime Porte, from the Governor of Musul, Ab-dilaziz Oglou Hussein Pascha.

On the 15th of last Moon of Cezze, being Sabbath Day, Nadir Shah, with a numerous Army, being arrived at Musul, pitched his Tents in the Neighbourhood of the Place, near what is call'd the Village of the Prophet Jonas; where, after having made a Stay of some Days, on the 2d of last Month of Saban, he himself rose up, and, in Person, took a Turn round the whole Place, to observe its Situation; and, having raised Batteries, and made Entrenchments, to form the Siege of the said Place, he approached it with his Troops; and, on the 4th of the time Moon, began to batter it in twelve Parts with great Cannon: And on the 8th, which was a Friday, at Ten o'Clock, he threw an infinite Number of Bombs from twelve Batteries against it, continuing Night and Day; when the Besieged had great Difficulty to save the advanc'd Works from the Execution of the Bombs; persisting with incredible Courage in the Defense, by firing continually against the Assaults; which Fire, on both Sides, lasted eight Days and eight Nights, and the Bombs thrown against the Place were counted upwards of 70,000, besides the continual firing of Muskets. After this, he caused the River Tygris to be cut off, in the Neighbourhood of a Place called Cara Sarai, and to be turned into the other Channel. He pressed the Besieged continually with Numbers of his Troops, who not in the least abating in their Courage, both I, and the Governor of Aleppo, his Excellency Hussein Pascha, with a military Example, incessantly animated the Garrison, and closely attended the repairing of those Parts that had been ruined by the Cannon of the Enemy: who having formed Mines, and in eight Days Time provided all Sorts of Instruments, especially 1700 Ladders, which he made his Soldiers carry upon their Shoulders for the Assault; and having passed the Tigris with all his Troops to apply the said Scales to the Walls. In the mean time he set Fire to the Mines; two of which, by mere Providence, turning backwards, buried a great Number of their Men, and the rest of the Mines remained without the least Operation; notwithstanding which, he forced his Troops to the Assault, and to apply the Ladders: but the Besieged were as active in repelling them, with Grenadoes, Bombs, and Fire-arms, making a continual slaughter of the impertinent Enemies. The Fight between the two Parties lasting seven Hours, it being Friday, after which, at about the 8th Hour, our Troops had the Success, by the particular Providence of the just God, to get the better, and to remain Conquerors, having cut off 5400 Enemies; and the Remainder of their Troops, not being any longer able to withstand the heroic Courage of our victorious Soldiers, were forced to fly, and retire to their Camp; whilst we had but 40 in all of our Men killed during the whole Time of this Siege and Action. In short, all the Projects contrived from the Beginning, by the perfidious Enemy, proved but vain Attempts; so that growing at last desperate, with the greatest Confusion and Dispersion of his Troops, not being able any longer to subsist in these Parts, he in haste repassed the River Dizzé, and retired to his own Country. Which being to be ascribed to God's special Favour, and to the august Fortune of our invincible Monarch, we are obliged to continual Prayers, that the Divine Majesty may be pleased to perpetuate his Imperial Triumphs.

Turin, December 21. The last Letters from Savoy, inform us, that the Spanish Troops there, not finding themselves much at their Ease, had ordered six Battalions, and 400 Peasants, to march into the Duchy of Aouste, in hopes of carrying off a good Booty of Cattle; but the Baron de Lomay, who commands there, having had previous Notice of their Design, made such Dispositions for their Reception, as obliged them to a hasty Retreat, which might, perhaps, be as well stiled a Flight.

Genoa, Dec. 26. Our Government has lately received Dispatches from her Ministers at the Court of Versailles, which seem to give great Satisfaction. His Sardinian Majesty has lately received very large Supplies, both in Bills of Exchange, and in ready Gold, of which we do not doubt the Effects will very speedily appear.

We have been excessively alarmed lately by the March of a considerable Body of Piedmontese Troops towards our Frontiers; at the same Time that several English Men of War appeared upon our Coast. We have been since informed, that the former were going to join the Austrian Forces in Lombardy, and that the latter had been recalled by Admiral Matthews. We have just received Advice, that the Regency of Tuscany have thought fit to reinforce the Garrison at Leghorn with a Regiment of Foot.

Hamburg, Jan. 6. Our Letters from Copenhagen of the last of last Month, inform us, that a Courier had arrived from the Court of London, upon which a general Council had been held, wherein a Resolution was taken to hasten the March of 12,000 Men, which are to enter into the Pay of Great Britain. We learn from Stockholm, that the Marquis de la Chetardie, has made but an indifferent Beginning of his Negotiations, the Senate of Sweden having rejected all the Offers he made them, in order to procure a Diversion in Germany; upon which he made such haste to get to Petersbourg, that he was in Danger of being lost among the Ice.

Vienna, Jan. 1. The Day before Yesterday Prince Charles of Lorraine demanded the Arch-duchess of the Queen our Sovereign, and the Arch-duke, and afterwards of the Empress Dowager, and having received their Consent, he presented his Picture to the Arch-duchess. The Cardinal Arch-bishop of this City, and all the Ministry, assisted afterwards, in their Habits of Ceremony, at the Act of Renunciation, which was performed with great Solemnity. The 7th Instant is appointed for the Celebration of the Nuptials, at which the principal Nobility of Hungary and Bohemia, and all the great Officers of State will assist. Count Ogilby who commands in Bohemia, has Orders to send 2900 Recruits lately raised in that Kingdom, into Italy, and to exchange a Regiment of Horse for another that is marching out of Transylvania. They write from Frankfort, that the best part of the Money which the Court of Bavaria has received from France, has been employed in completing their Troops. Some private Letters from Silesia, assure us, that the King of Prussia is raising Troops, not only thro' the whole Extent of that Province, but throughout the rest of his Dominions also. We have nothing remarkable from France or Italy, but our last Letters from Constantinople, directly assure us, that the Turks have gained a complete Victory over the Persians, the Particulars of which we expect with some Impatience.

Extract from the Paris Alaman. Paris, January 15.

His Majesty set out Yesterday for Masli; the Dauphin will go thither to-morrow, but we are assured that the Court will not continue there above three Weeks. His Majesty has given Leave to M. Grassin, formerly Captain in the Regiment of Piedmont, to Levy a Regiment of 1200 Men, of which 600 are to be Horse and 600 Foot, all in the Dress and Discipline of Pandours.

We are assured, that this Regiment will cost a Million, and that it will be complete by the next Campaign.

We are actually packing up the Equipage of the Prince of Conti, Generalissimo of his Majesty's Forces in Italy; and, it is said, his Highness will set out the 20th of next Month.

They write from Auxerre, that the Princess of Nassau had caused her Castle of d'Isle, about eight Leagues from that City, to be fortified; after which she armed her Domesticks, and took Abundance of the neighbouring Peasants into her Pay; who having chosen Commanders amongst themselves, spread eight Leagues round, burnt and pillaged several Hamlets, and amongst other Enormities, carried off the Equipage of the Count de St. Maur; upon which that Lord first complained to the Princess, and being able to obtain no Redress, thought proper to inform the Court of what had passed; upon which two Troops of Horse, and eight Brigades of Marshal's Men, were sent down, who invested the Castle; and, after a Blockade of three Weeks, forced the Princess to surrender. We are assured, she was immediately conducted to a Convent, where she remains under a Guard; and as for her Domesticks, they are sent to the Prisons of Troyes, and Orders given for their Prosecution.

They write from Limoges, that there has been lately a great Fire there, which burnt down the best Part of the Intendant's House, and about 10 more in the Neighbourhood.

M. de Souvigny, Intendant of the Army in Italy, set out, with his Lady; on Thursday last for that Country.

They write from Vienna, that there have been great Rejoycings, and publick Illuminations, for eight Nights together in that City, on account of the Marriage, between Prince Charles of Lorraine, and the Arch-duchess Mary Anne, Sister to the Queen of Hungary.

Actions 2020.

I R E L A N D.

Dublin, December 31. Last Week Mr. Robert Cragton, Supervisor of Hearth-money, was thrown off his Horse near Tullamore; by which Accident he was unfortunately killed.

Wednesday last his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, with his Duchess and Family, went out of Town, to the Seat of the Right Hon. the Earl of Besborough, at Bishopscourt, in the County of Kildare.

Thursday Morning last a large Sow seized upon a Child, about four Years old, in Duck-Lane, near Loughboy, and dragged it from thence into Church-street, where some Boys stopp'd the Sow, and killed it; the Child is mangled in a most miserable Manner, and is now in the Infirmary; but, 'tis thought, cannot live.

This Week the Provost and Senior Fellows gave the great Divinity Præmium to Mr. Michael Turhill, A. B. and the lesser to Mr. Thomas Leeland. These Præmiums were founded by the late Bishop Folter.

The Subject given out for the Prize-Exercises of the Bachelors in the College, for next Shrove-tide, is, Europa Libertas vindicata, & Gallorum frangata Ambitio, sub Auspiciis Serenissimi Regis Georgii in Germania. A. D. 1743.

The Czarina has ordered all the Regiments in her Service to be completed, and all the Cavalry to be remounted, by the End of March next.

The 9th of Feb. O. S. is the Day fixed by the Court of France for the Embarkation of the Troops at Toulon, which will consist of about 19000 Men.

There is reason to believe that the next Dutch Mail, will bring us the News of the States General of the United Provinces agreeing to a 4th Augmentation.

We have Advice of a dreadful Storm in the last Week of December, which happened on the Coast of the Austrian and French Flanders, and by which it is feared abundance of Ships have been sunk.

The same Letters acquaint us, that a Fire having broke out in the Heart of the Town of Dunkirk, exceedingly alarmed the Inhabitants, but is said to have been extinguished with little Loss.

St. James's, January 4. This Day the following Address of the Protestant Dissenting Ministers in about the Cities of London and Westminster, was presented to the King by the Reverend Obadiah Hughes, D. D. attended by several of his Brethren; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
 The humble Address of the Protestant Dissenting Ministers, in and about the Cities of London and Westminster.

May it please your Majesty,
 We humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the happy Concurrence of many favourable Provident, which have lately attended your Royal Person and Family; in whose Prosperity we are greatly interested, and feel a most sensible Pleasure.
 Your Majesty's late Return to these your British Dominions rejoic'd the Hearts of all your good Subjects.
 This Joy was much increased, by reflecting on the extreme Dangers, to which, in Defence of the Liberties of Europe, you generously exposed your Life in the Fields of Dettingen, and acquired immortal Honour; where, under the Influence of Heaven, and animated by your Presence and Valour, the confederate Army gain'd an important Victory over the common Enemy.

This, with the Recovery of the Duke from the honourable Wound he receiv'd in the Battle; the Marriage of the Princess Louisa with the Prince Royal of Denmark; and the Birth of another Son to his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, is such a Series of Events, as greatly encourages our Hopes, that the Goodness of God will perpetuate the Blessings, which we persuade ourselves his Providence designed in placing your Majesty's Family upon the Throne of these Kingdoms: Under which we have enjoy'd so many Years of Peace and Prosperity.

We gladly embrace this Opportunity to assure your Majesty, that we are deeply sensible of our Share in the publick Happiness under your auspicious Government; and that we shall, from Principles both of Gratitude and of Conscience, continue our Endeavours to impress the Minds of those to whom we minister, with such Sentiments, as tend to confirm them in Loyalty and Affection to so excellent a Prince.

Nor shall we cease to offer up our most fervent Prayers to the King of Kings, that Wisdom from above may always direct your Majesty's Counsels, and such further Success attend your Arms, as may produce that lasting Security of the Liberties of Europe, and those Blessings to these Kingdoms, which your Majesty has in View: — That your Majesty's most precious Life may continue to be the special Care of the Almighty, who cover'd your Head in the Day of Battle: — That after a long and prosperous Reign, you may inherit a Crown of Immortality in the World to come: — And that there never may be wanting a Successor in your Royal Line, who, after your Majesty's great Example, shall be the Guardian of the Liberties of these Kingdoms, till Time shall be no more.

 Dated Jan. 4. 1743-4

To which his Majesty was pleas'd to return this most gracious Answer.

I thank you for this dutiful Address; you may always depend upon the Continuance of my Protection.
 They were receiv'd very graciously, and had all the Honour to kiss his Majesty's Hand.
